

PRESS RELEASE – 19 May 2025

Early Bird ticket sales for November Music 2025 have started – featuring Meriç Artaç, Thomas Azier, Arooj Aftab and Makaya McCraven

A first selection of concerts is available at a discounted rate until 25 June

Let the anticipation begin: music lovers can now purchase Early Bird tickets for a number of special concerts during November Music 2025. Among the first confirmed names are composer Meriç Artaç (who is writing this year's Bosch Requiem), Thomas Azier, Grammy winner Arooj Aftab with the Metropole Orkest and Makaya McCraven. The 33rd edition of November Music will take place from 7 to 16 November 2025 in 's-Hertogenbosch, the Netherlands.

The Early Bird selection includes both combi tickets and single concerts. The full festival programme will be announced on 26 June 2025. This special pre-sale is meant as a preview, giving loyal visitors the opportunity to secure their spot for favourite musicians, composers and programmes during November Music 2025. Tickets are available until 25 June, well before regular ticket sales start on 1 September. Availability is limited.

"What's new this year is that we invite audiences into the heart of our festival for a full evening of combined concerts, fringe events, talks, installations and more. With this Early Bird campaign, you get a great discount, you can look forward to these special concerts even longer, and you're guaranteed a seat at your favourite show."

– Artistic director Marieke Hopman

Early Bird – Combi tickets

The Early Bird selection includes both combi tickets and single concerts. For example, a combi ticket is available for the Bosch Requiem 2025, composed by Meriç Artaç and performed by Capella Amsterdam and the New European Ensemble, combined with a performance by Thomas Azier (Friday 7 November). Another combi ticket is available for Ibrahim Maalouf, who presents a programme inspired by Oum Kalthoum, combined with a concert by Soheil Shayesteh and the Adam Quartet (Saturday 8 November). Diamanda La Berge Dramm is also part of a combi ticket, paired with Cello Octet Amsterdam (Thursday 13 November).

Please note: Separate tickets for these concerts will go on sale starting 1 September.

Early Bird – Single concert tickets

There are also discounted tickets available for a selection of individual concerts. On Sunday 9 November, performances include Spaceship Ensemble and Arooj Aftab & the Metropole Orkest. Saturday 15 November is reserved for an evening featuring Makaya McCraven, Lisel, CHARLOT and rolrolrol. The November Music Festival concludes on Sunday 16 November with a final concert featuring Karmit Fadael and work by Luciano Berio.

November Music Festival

The 33rd edition of November Music takes place from 7 to 16 November 2025 in 's-Hertogenbosch. The festival is known for its adventurous programming at the intersection of contemporary composed music, jazz, electronic music, pop and interdisciplinary projects. With this Early Bird campaign, November Music aims to reach dedicated visitors, curious explorers and loyal fans who mark the festival in their calendars early every year.

More information and tickets:

www.novembermusic.net

Please note: there will be no Festival Pass available this year.

Note to editors (not for publication):

For press inquiries:

Marjolein van Ruiten – +31 6 200 62 844

pr@marjoleinvanruiten.com or pers@novembermusic.net